

Kootenai County Notice of Covenant of Resettlement and Reclamation
Notice to agents is notice to principals, notice to principals is notice to agents

PREAMBLE

Whereas, we the people of Kootenai County Jural Society (hereinafter “Jural Society”) living on the land known as Kootenai County (hereinafter, “County”) within the geographic borders of the free and independent republic of Idaho (hereinafter, “State”), being Idahoans by birth or choice, hereby proclaim we have returned to settle the land of this County and reclaim our rightful republican form of government.

Whereas, we claim our right to live together with our fellow living men and women in peace; to defend our inalienable rights to life, liberty, privacy, property, and the pursuit of happiness; to steward the resources of this county for the benefit of all; and to make certain agreements with other Idahoans.

Whereas, we repudiate and rescind the fraudulent incorporation and cruel conveyance of living men and women into the Sea without their knowledge or consent and invoke the absolute Writ of Habeas Corpus to return them to their rightful standing upon the Land.

Whereas, we proclaim this fundamental maxim of law: the creator is always greater than the creation; no living man or woman is subject to the rule of any entity created by mankind without his or her full knowledge and explicit consent.

Whereas, we by right and by duty, no longer consent to be ruled by private corporations and their unknown owners who act as “government” under the pretense of law and who, for generations, have usurped our power and trespassed against our rights for their own profit.

And, Whereas, we recognize the many honorable and capable men and women, our neighbors, who serve today in these corporations, and we extend our hand in friendship and partnership to pursue an orderly transition to the rightful republican form of government for us all.

Therefore, we, in a peaceful and lawful assembly, serve this Notice of Covenant of Resettlement and Reclamation for the benefit in perpetuity of all people on this County.

NOTICE

April 28th, 2025, May 5th, 2025, and May 12th, 2025

Come now, the inhabitants of Kootenai County, by Writ of Habeas Corpus and with absolute resolve, we rebut all corporate authority.

Original Assembly and Library of Records on date: February 25th, 2025.

Kootenai County Jural Society Gives this County Settlement Announcement

Article I: Principles of Governance

We hereby acknowledge, adopt, and incorporate by reference herein, the enlightened and prudent principles of lawful governance as are written in the Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776; the Articles of Confederation, ratified November 15, 1777, and in force March 1, 1781; the Constitution of the United States of America 1789, including the Bill of Rights 1776-1791, and through the original article of Amendment XIII ratified March 12, 1819 and excluding all amendments thereafter; and the Constitution of the State of Idaho; Ratified November 5, 1889 and excluding all Articles and Sections interpreting "citizen" or "person", however used or capitalized, to refer to anything other than a living man or woman, one among the people, in all cases.

We, the people of Kootenai County, do hereby declare, affirm, ordain, establish and continue our Local Settlement Covenant in Kootenai county as a Covenant of Idaho, a Free and Independent state, and as our absolute Accumulated Legacy prepaid with blood taken from Family of Man and Woman, centered in Almighty God who came before and granted local-people Almighty Freedom that this land is now settled by the people in our Jural Society through consent and voluntary agreement as is our right under nature's law, common law and God's law, away from the predatory corporation and other jurisdictions that have preyed upon the people and their property which are our inalienable rights given to us by God. So be this declaration on April 28th, 2025, May 5th, 2025, and May 12th, 2025.

This county is now settled for the Republic on May 12th, 2025.

Article II: Forms of Law

The Common Law jurisdiction, based on the universal principle of “do no harm”, governs the interactions among living men and women and unincorporated entities on the land and territorial waterways of this County. The Admiralty Law of the Seas and the pursuant statutes, codes, regulations, and similar rules govern only corporate vessels and never living men and women, except on the high seas and with their full knowledge and explicit consent.

Article III: Forms of Assembly

Section 1. This Covenant recognizes the inherent and inalienable right of all living men and women to peaceably assemble and establishes the Jural Society for the equal benefit of all people on the County.

Section 2. This Covenant authorizes the Jural Society to conduct lawful business on behalf of and administer lawful justice for the benefit of the people on this County.

Section 3. Members of the Jural Society shall be called members when conducting general business; shall be called jurists when serving on a common law grand or petite jury or associated function; and shall be called electors when eligible to vote on a matter.

Section 4. The minimum criteria and process for membership in the Jural Society and the rules and procedures for the Jural Society shall be according to the rules stated in the Approved Declaration of Sovereign Rights, provided that a minimum of three (3) such electors are present.

Section 5. Jural Society officers shall be elected by a super-majority vote of electors. All motions require a super-majority vote to be adopted.

Section 6. The Jural Society established under this Covenant shall be unincorporated.

Article IV: Grand Juries

Section 1. Grand and petite juries are available to any living man, woman, boy, or girl who is harmed within the geographic borders of the County.

Section 2. All functions of the Jural Society will adhere to traditions of Common Law, and will protect the inalienable rights of all people, equally, in all circumstances.

Article V: Land and Resources

Section 1. All land within the geographic borders of the County shall be described in metes and bounds. "Legal descriptions" for "lots" and "parcels" are fraudulent and must be converted to metes and bounds at the earliest practical opportunity.

Section 2. The geographic borders of the County shall be described by metes and bounds at the earliest practical opportunity.

Section 3. We declare the people on the County are common freeholders of the land and resources of the County: the water and minerals under the land to the center of the earth; the water, vegetation, living creatures, material and structures on the land, and space above the earthly realm. This common freehold excludes, in each case, land or resources owned directly or indirectly by living men and women as of the date this Covenant is ratified.

Section 4. We declare the living men and women on the County have dominion over this freehold (Section 3.) and shall protect and steward the same for the benefit of future living men and women on the County. To this end, the County may contract for necessary services.

Article VI: Resettlement and Reclamation

Section 1. This Covenant recognizes the original counties of the State of Idaho and have resolved to become a sovereign state united with other sovereign counties on Idaho.

Section 2. The resettlement and reclamation process for this County shall be implemented according to the current Idaho free-state De Jure Roadmap.

Section 3. The County settlement date is the date the Jural Society officers' autograph and mail this Covenant to Idaho free State's interim Secretary of State, by United States Postal Service registered mail.

Section 4. Following the County settlement date, the County shall be called a settled county on the Republic.

Article VII: Office of Sheriff

Section 1. This Covenant authorizes the establishment of Kootenai County Office of Sheriff (hereinafter "Sheriff's Office") that shall provide for the protection of the people's inalienable rights on the entire county.

Section 2. The Sheriff's Office shall offer equal protection to all living men, women, boys and girls on the county.

Section 3. The title of Sheriff shall be conferred upon the Jural Society member who is eligible and elected.

Section 4. The Sheriff shall serve for a term of four years.

Section 5. The Sheriff shall have the power to deputize any number of living men and women who meet the qualifications for Sheriff's Deputies for any lawful purpose, at any time, and for any duration.

Section 6. The methods of operation, structure, duties, and all other issues pertaining to the establishment, maintenance and function of such office shall be determined by a committee created for such purpose comprised of members who are eligible.

Section 7. The final proposal of such committee shall be submitted to the Jural Society for deliberation, modification as required, and adoption.

Article VIII: Other County Offices

Section 1. The Jural Society may establish other county offices, as required, to serve the needs of the people.

Section 2. The methods of operation, structure, duties and all other issues pertaining to the establishment, maintenance, and function of such offices shall be determined by one or more committees, created for such purposes, comprised of members who are eligible.

Section 3. The final proposal of any such committee shall be submitted to the Jural Society for deliberation, modification as required, and adoption.

Article IX: Ratification and Amendment

Section 1. This Covenant shall be ratified by a super-majority vote of three (3) or more electors on the County.

Section 2. No part of this Covenant may be amended or removed provided that amendments for the sole purpose of clarity may be ratified by a super-majority of three (3) or more electors, the rationale for any such amendment is made clear in the text of the amendment, and any such amendment is appended to the then-extant Covenant so a complete and continuous record of its contents will be maintained.

Section 3. Date of first Jural Society meeting (in which the minimally required, three (3) interim officers are present, and minutes are taken): February 25, 2025. Our first public Notice of Covenant (notice is first read on Kootenai County courthouse steps): April 28, 2025.

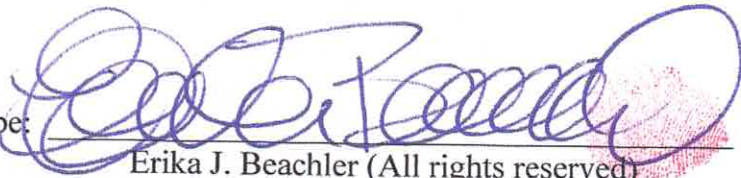

Covenant is so ratified this 12th day of May 2025 (the "Ratification Date") by Kootenai County Jural Society as Affirmed at the Kootenai County Courthouse Proclamation
